TVS iQube is an electric scooter available in 6 variants and 12 colours. With front disc and rear drum brakes, TVS iQube comes up with combined braking system of both wheels.

The TVS iQube is an all-electric urban scooter built for daily commutes, featuring a 4.4kW BLDC hub-motor that delivers around 33Nm of torque and a top speed of roughly 75–78kmph, depending on the variant. It now comes in three battery packs – 2.2kWh, 3.4kWh, and a large 5.1kWh option – giving you choices between modest mail-in-city range and more extended rides. The 2.2kWh model charges from 0–80 per cent in about 2 h 45 min, while the 3.4kWh version takes around 4 h 30 min. The 5.1kWh “ST” variant reaches up to approximately 150km of real-world range and is charged via a 950W off-board charger in around 4 h 18 min.

Its ride setup includes a telescopic front fork, twin-tube hydraulic rear shocks, 220mm front disc brake, and a 130mm rear drum, all wrapped around 12-inch alloy wheels. The iQube is ruggedly built with IP67-rated battery protection, regenerative braking, and a tubular frame.

In terms of features, it has Bluetooth connectivity with a mobile app for navigation, turn-by-turn guidance, crash and tow alerts, distance-to-empty readout, geo-fencing, OTA updates, and even a reverse-assist indicator.

In terms of design, it comes with largely flat panels, full LED lighting (headlamp, tail, indicators), digital instrument cluster, under-seat storage of about 30 litres, USB charging port, and connected safety alerts. The iQube is offered in a wide palette of colours – including Pearl White, Titanium Grey, Walnut Brown, Copper Brown, Celebration Orange, Starlight Blue, and more, depending on the variant.
